Introduction

Italyabroad.com is the place for Italian wine made by small and passionate producers. We are a growing group of passionate people who love what we do. Everything started more than 30 years ago when I had my first sip of wine sitting on my granddad knees, he was so proud of his wine that let his 2 year old nephew to taste it.

We believe that some of the best Italian wines are made by small, passionate producers who respect the environment because they know that, without it, they will be unemployed. They are family run, with the whole family working in the vineyards, following the family tradition, at the 3rd, 4th or even more, generations, and they know everything there is to know; they are so proud of their wines that name them after their son or daughter, granddad or father. These are the people behind our wines.

We are knowledgeable, helpful and friendly and we welcome your enquiries and does not matter whether you are an expert or a novice, talk to us or better, visit us and taste some of our wines. Our list is constantly updated, we continually add new wines, so if you require an update list, you can download it from our website or give us a call and will send you the most recent.

All prices and vintages are correct at the time of preparing this list, for up to date prices or vintages you can visit our website or call us on the number below. Please note that for a minimum order of 12 bottles, a 10% discount applies. The discount does not apply in conjunction with any other promotion or offer.
